The Ohio Council of Behavioral Health & Family Services Providers is a leading statewide trade and advocacy association representing over 170 community behavioral health and family services provider organizations. For decades, we have guided our members with strategic insights into state and federal government, regulatory know-how, in-depth policy analysis, and technical assistance informed by our team's combined decades of service in the mental health and substance use industries. We know our members' needs. And when we speak up, policy makers and state leaders of the behavioral health system listen.

As you explore business-to-business growth opportunities in Ohio's mental health and addiction treatment sectors, consider the value, expertise, and intelligence that The Ohio Council can offer you through our affiliate membership program.

Membership eligibility is open to individuals, firms, or companies that offer goods and services that may benefit or support the community behavioral health and family services industry that are not otherwise eligible for full membership in the Ohio Council. Our flat-rate affiliate membership can give you the edge you need to succeed in the world of behavioral health.

Membership Benefits:
