

Equipping Ohio to make a difference

The SUD COE is building a highly skilled workforce that can navigate the complexities of substance use, mental health and primary care integration, ensuring positive outcomes for Ohioans. The impact of the SUD COE is expanding exponentially each month.

20%+

of this month's trainings were in such high demand that they created waitlists, leading to additional sessions being added

400+

different organizations represented thus far in 2025

53

trainings delivered, the most trainings offered in a single month to date
February 53
To-Date Dec '23 - Feb '25, 239

1,100+

training attendees this month
February 1,103
To-Date Dec '23 - Feb '25 4,488

Breakdown of Roles Represented in Attendees

- Clinical Staff 47%
- Supervisory Staff 25%
- Peer Supporter 11%
- Executive Leadership 12%
- Medical Staff 1%

New Trainings Offered:

- Overview of Harm Reduction for Substance Use
- Evidence Informed Practice Implementation & Stages of Organizational Change
- Resilience Focused Supervision